

Evolution of young profession profile (YPP) in logistics and SCM

Wednesday, 24 June 2015

When: Wednesday, 24 June 2015

Time: 5.00pm - 6.30pm

Cost: SCLAA members $30.00
Future Leaders Group $20.00
Non-members $40.00

Venue: Curtin University
(Room to be advised)

Dress: Smart Casual Dress required, No work clothes

Registrations extended to 22 June 2015

Evolution of young profession profile (YPP) in logistics and SCM over the past 10 years. Do you remember your first year in your first role? Are you still looking for your first role? In this case you will definitely want to know what determines success or failure of a young professional's development within a company.

Sarab Singh, the CEO of Illuminate Group, will run an insightful and luminous presentation in his interactive manner and introduce you to those key moments that make one progress within an organisation. Illuminate Group are the winner of the CCI 2014 Employer Excellence Award for Small Employer of the Year, Metropolitan Region. Sarab will bring his extensive management experience from his previous role as a Director of Customs and Border Protection as well as his involvement in providing coaching and mentoring to Senior Executives. His knowledge of what is important to the success of an organisation and how young professionals are linked into it will be a valuable resource for any young professional to tap into.

Sarab Singh

There are no doubts that all young professionals can learn a lot from Sarab and his business. Please come and join likeminded people, young professionals and experienced managers at the next SCLAA event at Curtin University.

Kindly sponsored by:

