SUPPLY CHAIN BREAKFAST

WHAT IS IT?

An interactive breakfast workshop that will allow you to participate in discussions on Lean Six-Sigma and the future of last mile delivery, the “Iconomy”, all while networking and enjoying a hot breakfast and coffee of your choice @ Trunk!

Presented by

Parth Bommakanti is a Lean six Sigma Master Black Belt and NLP Master Practitioner with over 20 years of leadership and supply chain experience. Parth will present how 5 steps on Lean Six-Sigma plays an important role to increase value and flexibility in business strategies.

Nimmity Zappert from Localz, leaders in solution design to enable retailers, logistics companies and field services to thrive in the “Iconomy”, will present the case study: The lcurve: How the demands of the individual are shaping the Last Mile. In an era where everything is available at the swipe of a thumb, we have been conditioned to have incredibly high expectations of the products and services we consume.
