Please join the NSW Section Committee for our upcoming networking event where guest speaker Clare Gardiner-Barnes, Deputy Secretary for Freight, Strategy and Planning will provide us with the vision for passenger and freight transport in Sydney over the next ten years with a focus on the longer term project pipeline for Sydney.

About Clare Gardiner-Barnes:

Ms Gardiner-Barnes was previously the Chief Executive at the Northern Territory Department of Transport and has over 20 years' experience in the public sector with leadership roles across a number of areas of government.

Ms Gardiner-Barnes plays a critical role in the development of strategy and policy for public transport and roads networks and works closely with industry to ensure the safe and efficient movement of freight in the State.

Getting to the venue:

Bradfield Room, Central Station, Sydney.

Please take the Double Doorway entrance near the Cloak Room, Concourse, at the Haymarket end of the building, then follow the directions upstairs to the Bradfield Room.
