SUMMIT 2016 – LOGISTICS FUTURE WORKFORCE

Doltone House Hyde Park, Sydney 10 November 2016

Early bird registrations are now open for the ALC Diversity & Inclusion Summit 2016 - Logistics Future Workforce

SCLAA members are eligible to receive a discounted early rate – currently just $350!

The Summit will be held at Doltone House Hyde Park, Level 3, 181 Elizabeth Street, Sydney, on 10 November 2016.

The 2016 Summit will focus on improving how the logistics industry attracts women, youth and Indigenous people to the logistics industry, and how it can better retain and support those already working in the sector. Industry leaders will discuss what we can do to address these issues and what practical measures can be put in place to tackle these challenges collectively as an industry.

Join us as we work towards making the logistics industry one of choice for women, youth and Indigenous people.

Sessions and workshops include:

Building Capability through Diversity and Inclusion: The ADF and Air Services Australia	Making indigenous youth part of the diversity & inclusion agenda
Case study: Information sharing within the industry to encourage greater female representation in frontline roles	How will diversity and inclusion work for you?
Case study: DP World and the White Ribbon Foundation	Pay Equity Leadership Programme
Advocacy is not mentoring – we need more advocacy	Building your personal brand
Gender and diversity imbalance: The impacts of equality vs equity for Australian business	Logistics is the New Black
Unconscious bias ≠ equal sexism: Understanding stereotypes and how they undermine performance	A career with a government business enterprise in the distribution industry
